Vocals by Quincy Yeates

Violin Performance by Chris Carmichael

I can make your world just a little brighter, this is what I know
I can be your water sunlight, and your shelter, this is what I know
Gonna take away your sadness, gonna make it ok I promise
Tomorrow's another day, take my hand let's fade away

There is more to us than we will ever master, this is what I know
I will be your now and your ever after, this is what I know
Gonna take away your sadness, gonna make it ok I promise
Say what you wanna say, tell me never go away

You won't take my hand for show, you won't let my feelings go
Cause I've seen it all before, and this is why I know

It takes a million words to realize your shadow, this is what I know
But it takes just a few simple words to say what truly matters, this is what I know
Gonna take away your sadness, gonna make it ok I promise
Say what you wanna say, tell me never go away
Gonna take away your sadness, gonna make it ok I promise
Tomorrow's another day, take my hand let's fade away
