Driving down the wrong side down the road
With no signs to tell me where I'm going
(repeat)

Every time I set sail, there's a chance I might fail
I say NO
Teach me how to navigate, if I ever lose my way
You'll be holding me, controlling me yeah

Take your chance to turn the tide, take me off this crazy ride
I say Yeah
If the spirits I may drink makes my mind refuse to think
You'll be holding me, controlling me, yeah

I've made up my mind, you are the way to go
Tell me you're on my side, let's fade away into your sunshine

If the courses that I set lead me closer to regret
I say NO, NO
Take my hand and take command as we reach the promised land
I'll be yours willingly eternally, yeah

Oh oh oh oh oh.....

And when all our friends are here and love is in the air
I say Yeah, yeah
There is freedom that we feel and the music makes it real
I say Yeah, yeah
One love, One Heart, Yeah, yeah
When we laying down a groove and the people start to move
I say Yeah!
